DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's arguments see pages 1-5, filed 03/23/2009, with respect to claims 1-39 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The final rejection of 01/22/2009 has been withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 1-21, 26-31, and 37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Claims 1-20, 27-31, 37 do not falling within one of the four statutory categories of invention. While the claims recite a series of steps or acts to be performed, a statutory "process" under 35 U.S.C. 101 must (1) be tied to particular machine, or (2) transform underlying subject matter (such as an article or material) to a different state or thing. See page 10 of In Re Bilski 88 USPQ2d 1385. The instant claims are neither positively tied to a particular machine that accomplishes the claimed method steps nor transform underlying subject matter, and therefore do not qualify as a statutory process. The method including steps of defining a three dimensional closed cutting surface passing through a line between the gingiva and a crown of a tooth is broad enough that the claim could be completely performed mentally, verbally or without a machine nor is any transformation apparent.

Claim 21 recites, "A system for separating gingiva from a tooth.....to separate the gingiva from the tooth". The claimed apparatus direct to software modules (Absence of an explicit and deliberate definition in the specification that the modules must be implemented in hardware or a combination of hardware/software) which do not show the physical transformation. Therefore, the claimed "system/apparatus" is among to computer programs, a type of functional descriptive material, per se. As such, the claimed system must include the hardware necessary to realize any of the functionality of the claimed modules and produce a useful, concrete and tangible result. Absent recitation of such hardware as part of the claimed system, it is considered non-statutory.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 21 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claim 21, the claim element "means for defining..." is a means (or step) plus function limitation that invokes 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph. However, the written description fails to disclose the corresponding structure, material, or acts for the claimed function.

Applicant is required to:

(a) Amend the claim so that the claim limitation will no longer be a means (or step) plus function limitation under 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph; or

(b) Amend the written description of the specification such that it expressly recites what structure, material, or acts perform the claimed function without introducing any new matter (35 U.S.C. 132(a)).

If applicant is of the opinion that the written description of the specification already implicitly or inherently discloses the corresponding structure, material, or acts so that one of ordinary skill in the art would recognize what structure, material, or acts perform the claimed function, applicant is required to clarify the record by either:

(a) Amending the written description of the specification such that it expressly recites the corresponding structure, material, or acts for performing the claimed function and clearly links or associates the structure, material, or acts to the claimed function, without introducing any new matter (35 U.S.C. 132(a)); or

(b) Stating on the record what the corresponding structure, material, or acts, which are implicitly or inherently set forth in the written description of the specification, perform the claimed function. For more information, see 37 CFR 1.75(d) and MPEP §§ 608.01(o) and 2181.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 22-25, 38-39 are allowed. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Prior art fails to teach or fairly suggest a computer program, residing on a tangible storage medium, for use in separating gingiva from a computer model of a tooth, the program comprising executable instructions operable to cause a computer to define a three dimensional closed cutting surface passing through a line between the gingiva and a crown of the tooth, wherein the closed cutting surface comprises a crown portion surrounding the crown of the tooth and a root portion approximating the shape of a root of the tooth, and wherein the crown portion of the closed cutting surface comprises a volume greater than the volume of the crown of the tooth; and apply the cutting surface to the tooth to separate the gingiva from the tooth in a single cut.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
